ACCOUNTING

You have a goal in mind, and that goal is to become a Certified Public Accountant. That's where our Master of Professional Accounting degree program comes in. The program is specifically designed to prepare students like you to become a CPA.

CPAs are driven, highly motivated professionals who either work on their own or help entire organizations to run more efficiently and successfully. They stay on top of changes to financial laws and regulations. They reduce costs and improve profits for their clients. They're a large part of what defines financial success today, and we can prepare you to join that field.

Our program is designed to prepare you to become an effective leader in public accounting. If this is the path forward for you, and you are ready to chart your future helping corporations and individuals make the best financial decisions possible, get in touch and let us help you get started today.
